

ONTRACK EDUCATION

LEARNING SUPPORT ASSISTANT
MILDENHALL

ON TRACK EDUCATION SERVICES

ON TRACK EDUCATION SERVICES LIMITED WAS ESTABLISHED BY A TEAM OF SEN TEACHERS IN 2004. WE NOW HAVE EIGHT INDEPENDENT SPECIAL SCHOOLS, AND ADDITIONAL SUPPORT SERVICES, AROUND THE COUNTRY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE WITH A RANGE OF DIVERSE SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS.

ON TRACK MILDENHALL

On Track Education in Mildenhall is a small independent special school for pupils aged 11 to 16 with behavioural, emotional and social difficulties. The school has been established for 15 years and was last inspected by Ofsted in March 2023, receiving judgements of 'good' in all categories. Our pupils engage in an interesting and inspiring curriculum that leads them to gain accreditation, including a range of GCSEs, BTEC and Level 1 / Level 2 qualifications.

The school facilities include vocational workshops for car mechanics and woodwork, an art workshop, food technology kitchen, astro-pitch, ICT suite and other subject specific classrooms. Our pupils are taught in very small groups, or 1:1, with a high staff ratio.

We support our pupils to fulfil their potential by giving them unconditional support, providing them with good quality teaching and empowering them to effectively manage their own behaviour. Many of our pupils have histories of challenging behaviour, mental health and special educational needs, including ADHD and autism.

Our staff team work together to building and maintain positive professional relationships with all pupils, treating each pupil with tolerance and respect.

RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION STATEMENT

The safe recruitment of staff is the first step in the effective safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our pupils. On Track Education is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. It is recognised that this can only be achieved through sound procedures, good inter-agency co-operation and the recruitment and retention of competent, motivated employees who are suited to, and fulfilled in the roles they undertake.

On Track Education recognises the value of, and seeks to achieve a diverse workforce which includes people from different backgrounds, with different skills and abilities. On Track Education is committed to ensuring that the recruitment and selection process is conducted in a manner that is systematic, efficient, effective and promotes equality of opportunity. Selection will be on the basis of merit and ability, assessed against the qualifications, skills and competencies required to do the job. On Track Education will uphold its obligations under law to not discriminate against applicants.

On Track Education will implement robust recruitment procedures and checks for appointing staff and volunteers to ensure that reasonable steps are taken not to appoint a person who is unsuitable to work with children, or who is disqualified from working with children, or does not have the suitable skills and experience for the intended role.

The following pre-employment checks will be required:

- receipt of at least two satisfactory references, one from most recent employer*
- verification of the candidate's identity
- a satisfactory enhanced DBS check (including barred list information)
- verification of the candidate's mental and physical fitness for the post
- verification of qualifications
- verification of professional status where required e.g. QTS status (unless properly exempted)
- the production of evidence of the right to work in the UK
- a check for a teacher prohibition order
- a check for a section 128 direction (for management positions)
- online searches may be conducted on shortlisted candidates to help identify any issues that are publicly available

NB It is illegal for anyone who is barred from working with children to apply for, or work in our schools in any voluntary or paid capacity.

- On Track Education will contact current and previous employers, if an applicant is shortlisted, as part of pre-appointment checks. In exceptional circumstances, where you have good reason not to want your referees to be contacted prior to interview, you should set out your reasons with your application form. On Track Education will liaise with you and where they agree to defer in such cases, referees will be contacted immediately after interview and before an offer of employment is made.
- Further checks may be made for applicants who have lived or worked outside the UK. These will include a check for information about any sanction or restriction that an EEA professional body has imposed.

RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION STATEMENT

On Track Education will take up any discrepancies or anomalies in the information provided or issues arising from references at interview.

On Track Education will contact current and previous employers of those applicants.

On Track Education will keep and maintain a single central record of recruitment and vetting checks, in line with the statutory requirements.

On Track Education requires all staff and volunteers who are convicted or cautioned for any offence during their employment to notify the school, in writing of the offence and penalty.

All posts within On Track Education are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all applicants will be required to declare spent and unspent convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as spent and have an Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure. A previously issued Criminal Records Disclosure Certificate will only be accepted in certain restricted circumstances. On Track Education is committed to ensuring that people who have been convicted are treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for positions. Having a criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position. This will depend on the background, nature and circumstances of the offence(s).

EQUALITY, INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY

ON TRACK EDUCATION IS COMMITTED TO THE PRINCIPLE OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN EMPLOYMENT

On Track Education is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in employment. The terms equality, inclusion and diversity are at the heart of this policy. 'Equality' means ensuring everyone has the same opportunities to fulfil their potential free from discrimination. 'Inclusion' means ensuring everyone feels comfortable to be themselves at work and feels the worth of their contribution. 'Diversity' means the celebration of individual differences amongst the workforce. We will actively support diversity and inclusion and ensure that all our employees are valued and treated with dignity and respect. We want to encourage everyone in our business to reach their potential.

We value people as individuals with diverse opinions, cultures, lifestyles and circumstances. All job applicants, employees and workers (including agency workers) are covered by this policy and it applies to all areas of employment including recruitment, selection, training, career development, and promotion. These areas are monitored and policies and practices are amended if necessary to ensure that no unfair or unlawful discrimination, intentional, unintentional, direct or indirect, overt or latent exists.

Equality of opportunity, valuing diversity and compliance with the law is to the benefit of all individuals in our Company as it seeks to develop the skills and abilities of its people. While specific responsibility for eliminating discrimination and providing equality of opportunity lies with managers and supervisors, individuals at all levels have a responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect. The personal commitment of every employee to this policy and application of its principles are essential to eliminate discrimination and provide equality throughout the Company.

Management will ensure that recruitment, selection, training, development and promotion procedures result in no job applicant, employee, or worker receiving less favourable treatment because of a protected characteristic within the Equality Act 2010 which are race (including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin and caste), religion or belief, disability, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy or maternity, gender reassignment, marriage/civil partnership and age. In accordance with our overarching equal treatment ethos, we will also ensure that no-one is treated less favourably on account of their trade union membership or non-membership, or on the basis of being a part-time worker or fixed term employee. The Company's objective is to ensure that individuals are selected, promoted, and otherwise treated solely on the basis of their relevant aptitudes, skills and abilities.
